

Lëpushë (Quince / Cydonia oblonga)

42.1857002 N,20.3344268 E

42.1969322, 20.3505056

Quince is the king of autumn fruits. It is used fresh or in the form of compote, marmalade, and also as an ingredient of apple marmalade, pear and other fruits to give them taste, aroma and firmness. Gjystina Grishaj is one of the women in Lepusha area who has been involved in the production of various products for many years, including quince recipes.

Overview

Country:

