

LIDI DI COMACCHIO - SABBIA

44022 Comacchio FE

44.696379, 12.180427

The area of the Lidi Ferraresi includes the famous even and inside is home to the Delta Nature Park, which extends for much of the Ferrara territory, a destination for naturalists from all over the world. Each lido has a different history and evolution that still characterizes its life and personality. The summer activity in a few decades has entered into direct competition for quality with all the other oldest Italian seaside resorts. In a few decades the Lidi Ferraresi have become a reference point for Italian beach tourism, thanks to the beauty and tranquility of the places, ideal for families and inspiring for young people and sportsmen. Beaches with a thousand possibilities and multiple faces, all to be discovered. In the 1960s, the Lidi Ferraresi, always a summer destination for the sundays of the inhabitants of the whole province, were enriched by the first second homes for the first ferrara citizens who decided to spend all the summer months here. In the following decades, more and more German and Dutch tourists arrived, stimulating our beaches to become more and more active, with the first sports services and with a lively and quality catering. Today the Lidi Ferraresi respond to the new challenges of the tourist market by proposing many types of holidays in the same place: forms of hospitality suitable for groups, families, teens and the elderly. Infinite possibilities for recreation on the beaches or main streets of each lido. An excellent nightlife and the extraordinary natural heritage of the Delta del Po Park just a few kilometers away.

Overview

Country: iTALY

Accessibility / Transportation

✓ Useful Links <https://www.tper.it>

