A gift of Nature, in Nin one can access the medicinal mud (peloid), located near the long, sandy Queens Beach. Its effectiveness has been used to treat various ailments such as rheumatic diseases, muscular, fertility and various skin diseases for decades. Nins mud was used as long ago as Roman times. Relics depicting the deity Venus from the first century was found, representing the goddess of fertility. The assumption is that in this place there was a spa in the prehistoric era.
