

Vrelo Bosne

Vrelo Bosne

43.820053, 18.271040614972904

The area of Vrelo Bosne represent the source of the river Bosna, located southwest of Sarajevo, below the slopes of the mountains Igman and Bjelašnica. The area of Vrelo Bosne has always been considered as a complete part of the area Ilidža - Vrelo Bosne - Stojčevac, because with its natural and cultural-historical values this area is inextricably linked. This area offers a service especially from the aspect of tourism, spa treatment and recreation. The richness of nature of this area, which attracts a large number of tourists, is reflected in the resources of quality drinking water, thermal waters, forests, agricultural potentials, attractive locations for tourism and recreation, as well as numerous cultural and historical heritage. The natural monument is located in the municipality of Ilidža and covers an area of 603 hectares.

Overview

Country: Bosnia and Herzegovina

