

The full moon night

Zadar

44.1186078, 15.232136

The full moon night is traditional festival of culture, food and customs of Zadar region. On the night of the full moon in midsummer night, the Riva of Zadar is illuminated by torches and candles. Ships are converted to floating booths which offer everything, from the best tuna and sardines from famous fishermen from Kali, up to famous Novigrad mussels. Old temporary taverns serve diverse traditional dishes from Nin falcon to figs, cheese, brandy and other delicacies. If you are not able to visit the surrounding area of Zadar and Zadar islands and meet local folklore and customs, be sure to visit the Night of the Full Moon. Through whole city you can smell fine cuisine, especially sea food and wine. So in one night on one place you can feel all senses that Zadar county offers.

Overview

Country:Croatia

