

Arheological Park Tuzla

Tuzla

44.5391105, 18.675193

The Archaeological Park is a reconstruction of a part of the Neolithic Sojenica settlement discovered in Tuzla. The park is an open-air museum that aims to present to visitors a part of the archaeological and historical past of the city of Tuzla, as well as the way of life, both material and spiritual, and especially the first salt production in the Neolithic era.

Overview

Country:

