Čavljak is considered a very popular outing destination among Sarajevans. It is only ten kilometers from the center of Sarajevo and four kilometers from the picnic grounds of Barice, which can be reached by taking the asphalt road. Minibuses run from the city to Barice and Čavljak on weekends and holidays. Čavljaks well-maintained mountain paths lead one even further on to the peaks of Sarajevos Ozren, Crepoljsko, and Bukovik, as well as to the natural monument, Skakavac. Čavljak is an ideal place for a quick escape into nature, and not only can visitors enjoy walking, hiking, and biking through wonderful landscapes, they can also drop by the Čavljak mountain cabin.
