

Gradačac Castle

Gradaac

44.8778264, 18.4262247

Gradačac Castle is a castle in Gradačac in Bosnia and Herzegovina. Gradačac Castle is 138 metres (453 ft) above sea level. Gradačac Castle has a fort with walls 18 metres high, built in 1824 by Husein-kapetan Gradašćević on foundations made originally by the Romans. It is finished in the 19th century. In 1831 general rallied the Bosnians against the Turkish occupation and drove the Ottomans out to Kosovo, winning Bosnia its sovereignty for the coming year. Therefore, fortification has great historic importance for Bosnians. It has been recently renovated.

Overview

Country: Bosnia and Herzegovina

