Vibe Festival is a festival of electronic music. The festival is held every September in Kragujevac in the area of the Knezev arsenal, at an authentic location in Europe, which contributes to a unique concept. Within the festival, interactive creative zones are organized, so visitors have the opportunity to enjoy a mix of music, unique visual effects and live performances. The VIBE festival is being held at the “Knezev Arsenal” in Kragujevac, a unique military-industrial complex in Europe. This kind of ambient unit consists of factory buildings and workshops from the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Vibe Fest is usually being held by the end of June in the city of Kragujevac, the heart of Šumadija and a former capital of Serbia, most recognizable nowadays for its authentic car industry.
