The area of Vezir hill is known as the vineyard area in Pomoravlje. On this fertile soil, some of the best grape varieties have been cultivated for years. Svečari Svetog Trifuna sa Vezirovog brda“ is viticulturist and winemakers association, whose members, for a full 12 years, gather on the Day of the Holy Trinity in the Vinogradarska house. The Vinogradars house was built thanks to donation of members and donation of benefactors. They built house at the site of the Municipal House in 1925 upon the order of King Alexander. After the prohibition of gathering, the house was demolished and only in 2005 was the reconstruction started. According to the members of the association, their ancestors planted the vineyard vineyards on that land because the house is a symbol of longevity. The winemakers of this region participate in the competitions in the Pomoravlje region and wider, and about the quality of their wines is proven by numerous awards, gold and silver plaques won at fairs.
